

Biological Treatment

Activated sludge treatment. Employe naturally occurring microorganisms to remove suspended and dissolved organic matter from the wastewater. This is where the nutrients are incorporated into the biomass.

Treatment Process

1. Aeration basins – provide biological & chemical Phosphorus removal
2. Consume pollutants as food source for bacteria

